2. COOKIES

2.1 A ‘cookie’ is a small text file containing information which is stored on your computer. Cookies are used for technical reasons and to facilitate your use of a website. One type of cookie will save a file permanently on your computer. It can thereafter be used to customise this website based on the user’s choices and interests. Another common type of cookie is the “session cookie”. When you visit a website, session cookies are sent between your computer and the server to collect information. Session cookies are not saved once you close your web browser. For more information about how cookies work, please be referred to www.allaboutcookies.org. Please note that the referred website is independent to Lindab and that Lindab is not responsible for its content.

2.3 We are continuously working to improve the Applications. In order to do this, we use Microsoft Clarity to analyze our user's behavior on an anonymous and aggregated level.

2.4 We also allow our web analysis tool, Microsoft Clarity, to place and manage cookies on this website. The following cookies are placed by Microsoft Clarity to log data about visits and visitors of this website. The statistics are used to improve the user experience of this website:

- _clk (session) – Persists the Clarity User ID and preferences, unique to that site is attributed to the same user ID
- _clsk (session) – Connects multiple page views by a user into a single Clarity session recording
- CLID (session) – Identifies the first-time Clarity saw this user on any site using Clarity
- ANONCHK (session) – Indicates whether MUID is transferred to ANID, a cookie used for advertising. Clarity doesn't use ANID and so this is always set to 0
- MR (expires after 7 days) – Indicates whether to refresh MUID
- MUID (expires after 1 year 24 days) – Identifies unique web browsers visiting Microsoft sites. These cookies are used for advertising, site analytics, and other operational purposes

- SM (session) – Used in synchronizing the MUID across Microsoft domains
- SRM_B (expires after 1 year 24 days) – It helps track user sessions and behavior on websites, providing insights into how users navigate, interact with content, and experience the site

2.5 If you do not wish to accept cookies you can change your web browser's settings to automatically deny the storage of cookies or to inform you when a website wants to store cookies on your computer. Previously stored cookies can also be deleted through the web browser (for more on this see below under 6). Please note that certain areas and functions on this website require cookies and may not function if cookies are deleted or declined.

2.6 If you wish to remove the cookies that are already on your equipment, and you are using a PC and a newer browser, you can press CTRL + SHIFT + DELETE simultaneously. If this shortcut does not work, you can find the support pages for the most commonly used browsers as well as a link to delete flash-cookies here:
